and meetings
effectively

eigenland® Online supplies you with time, new expertise, and it engages with people.

Virtual and Quick: eigenland® Online

Discover interactive and productive online workshops, instead of boring and tiring Online Meetings – Make use of the unique advantages from the in-person sessions in an on-line setting using gamification and an inclusive process. You will experience a great energy, bringing people into an open dialogue resulting in better solutions for your change project.
Intuitive. Interactive. Connective.

create digital power & feel the energy.

- With eigenland® Online ...
- > You will speed up the development and formation process.
  - > You will engage with people in your organization and create power teams.
  - > You will make better decisions.
  - > You will win back your valuable time and a safe orientation to create a successful future.

➔ The Structured and Digital Principal:
Every participant, through their computer or smartphone, will evaluate intuitive pre-formulated theses, with the help from digital, colorful stones, also known as treasures. The colors symbolize the degree of approval to the various theses. All the evaluations are anonymous, and they will be immediately assessed, in order to be discussed within the team in a constructive and creative manner.

Do you believe that Online Workshops are a viable alternative to in person Workshops?
»I am surprised by how well the implementation of Online Workshops has worked. The only thing that you need are the right tools. The interactivity and the ease of eigenland® Online Workshops have impressed me«

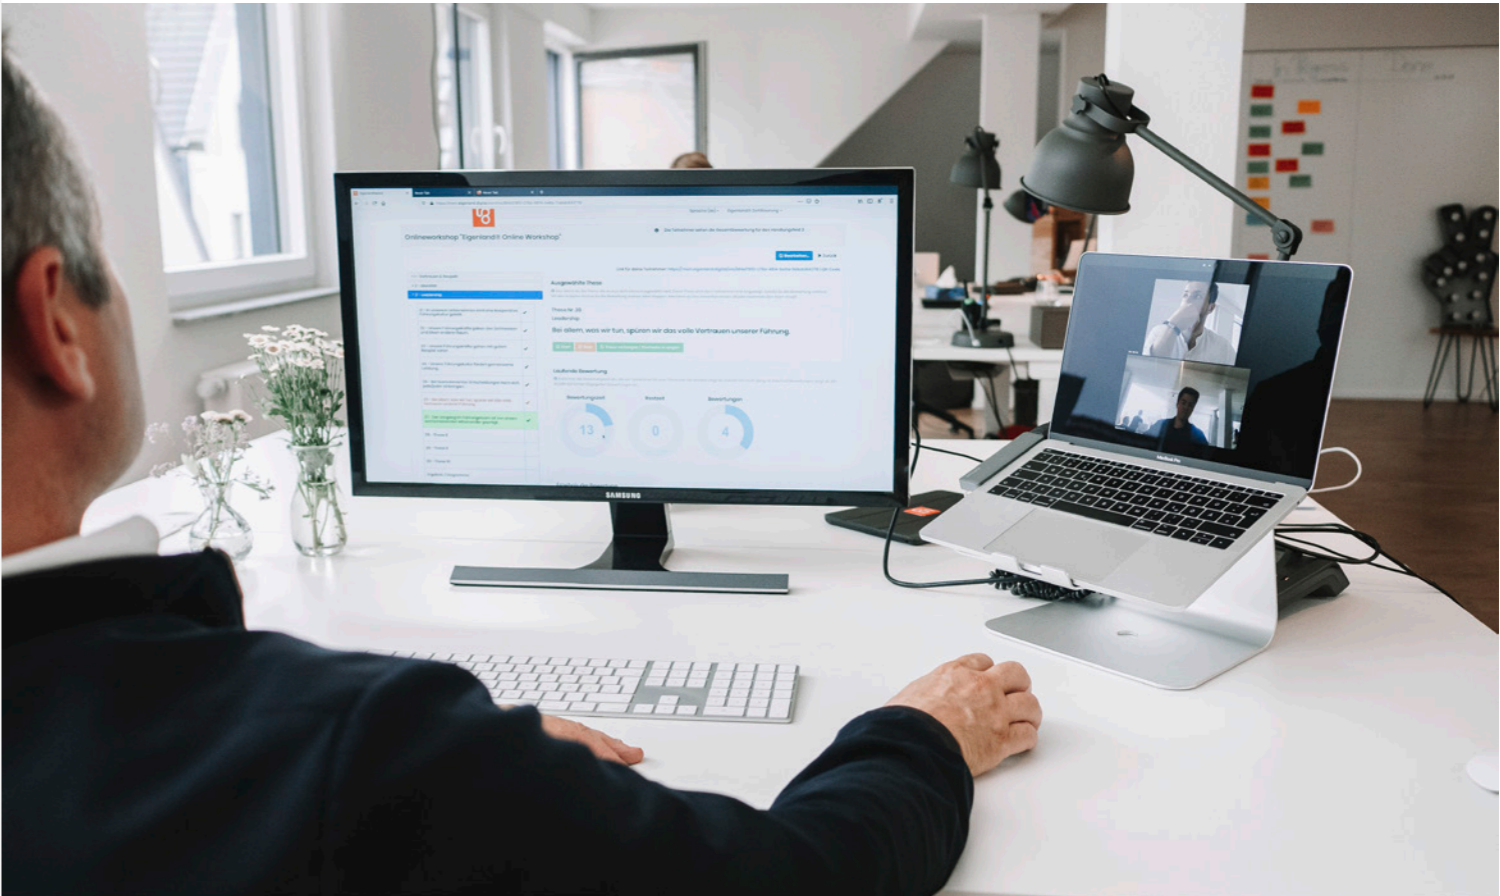

Marcus Müller Siemens AG

Achieve Internal Commitment.
The Online Workshop will create a synonymous awareness of the topic, goal and process.

Develop Attitude.
The participants will develop ideas and perspectives together, resulting in an optimized orientation and a value in their activity.

Learn, Develop, and Act.
In surprisingly short time, material and immaterial results will be met – live and measurable.

Increase Development Time.
The transformation processes are dynamic and full of tempo. Your goals will be met quicker.

Become decidedly more successful!

We are convinced that your organization has everything it needs to become successful. Instead of achieved average results, reach the potential you have by using the experience and knowledge of your team in a useful and participative manner.

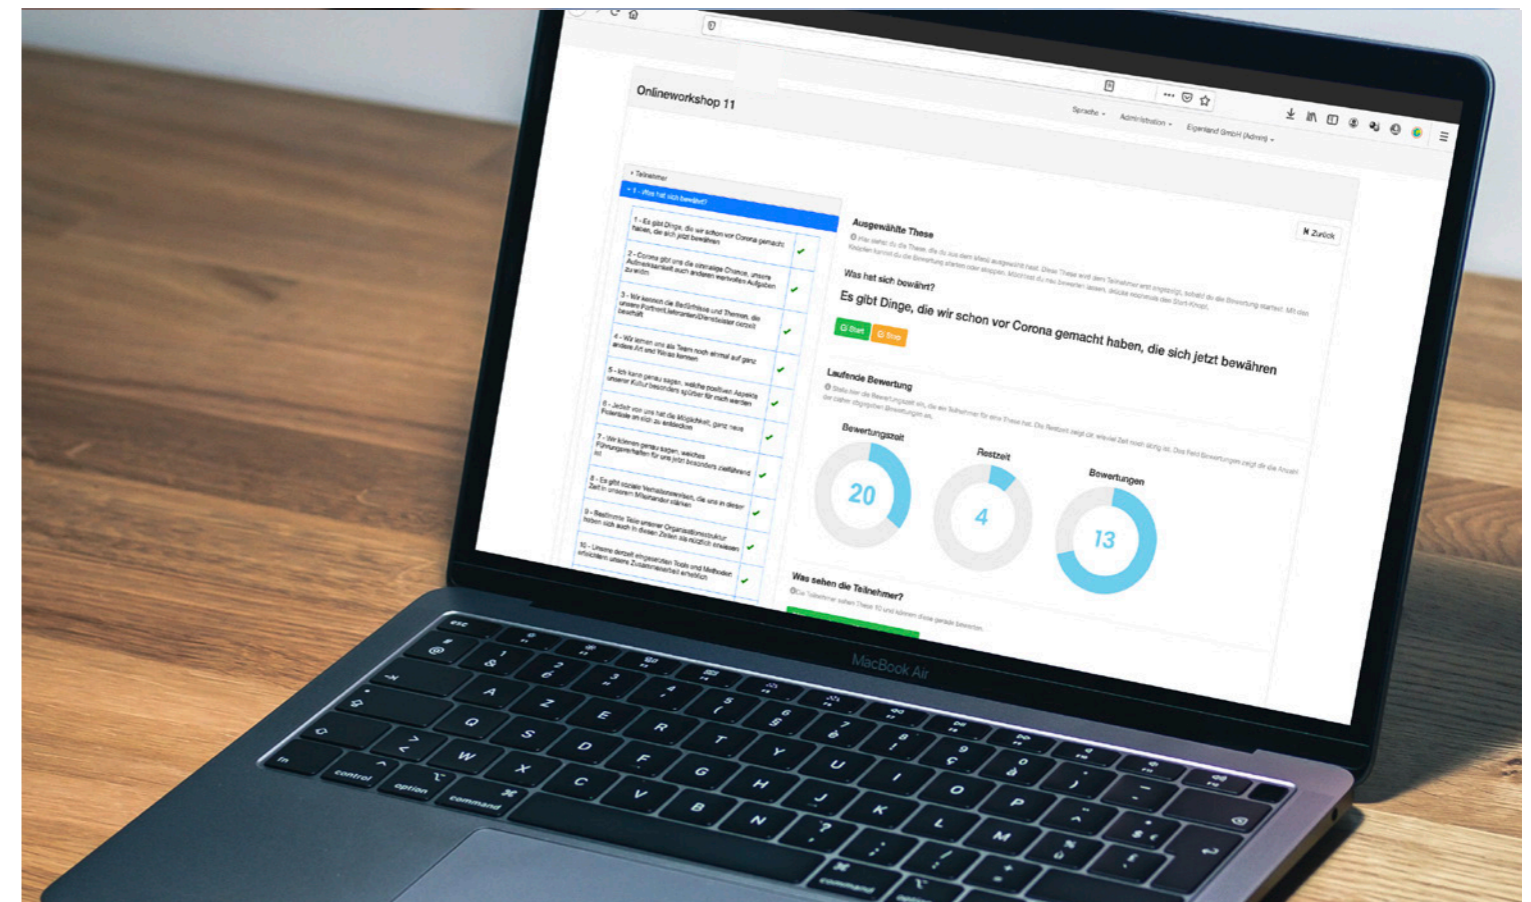

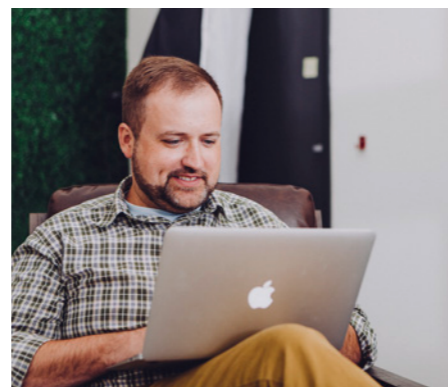

eigenland® Online will combine emotion and reason for your change and transformation themes.
